P R E F A C E

The publication of the old records of the Town of Oyster Bay is being carried on by the Committee under the following resolution adopted at the Town Election on April 4th, 1911.

RESOLVED, That Townsend D. Cock, Frederick E. Willits and James Malcolm be, and they are hereby appointed a committee to have the Town Records of the Town of Oyster Bay transcribed, annotated as fully as possible, thoroughly indexed and printed at the lowest cost commensurate with good work and that the sum of Five Thousand ($5,000.00) Dollars be, and the same is hereby appropriated to meet the expense of transcribing, annotating, indexing, printing and binding the records of the Town of Oyster Bay. That said work be done under the supervision of the Committee above named, who are hereby appointed for that purpose and are to serve without pay; that the Supervisor of the Town of Oyster Bay cause the said sum to be inserted in the next budget, to be raised by tax, and paid over by the Collector, to the Supervisor, to be drawn on the order of the said Commission, or a majority of them.

The Historical Society of the Town of Oyster Bay had previously, in 1898, undertaken this work, and had, through its secretary and historian, George W. Cocks of Glen Cove, prepared a typewritten copy of Book A, of the Book of Purposes, of the Court of Assize records and of some important unrecorded documents. These copies were carefully compared with the originals by Mr. Cocks and his daughter. The lack of financial support prevented the Society from continuing its work, and after the adoption of the above resolution by the town electors, the Historical Society, on November 23rd, 1911, placed its manuscript at the disposal of this Committee.

Before the next biennial Town Election, James Malcolm, one of the Committee, died, and since the original resolution contained no provision for the appointment of his successor, and since it had then been ascertained that the appropriation was not sufficient to complete the work, a further resolution, empowering the survivors of the Committee to fill vacancies and authorizing them to sell printed copies of the records as issued, and to use the proceeds to carry on the work, was adopted at the Town Election of April 2nd, 1913.

James Malcolm died September 16th, 1912, and James H. Ludlam was appointed in his place April 1st, 1913. Townsend D. Cock died June 19th, 1913, and was succeeded by Daniel Underhill, appointed February 19th, 1914. James H. Ludlam died February 17th, 1915, and Edward T. Payne was appointed his successor September 3rd, 1915.

It was intended that George W. Cocks, whose many years of research in Colonial history, both general and local, and in the records of the Town, peculiarly qualified him for the purpose, would be employed by the Committee to take the active supervision and conduct of the work, but his illness and the infirmities of age made it impossible for him to carry out such a laborious task. It was apparent to the Committee that for the copied records to be of value the copy must be prepared and verified by an expert in such matters. After having the records transcribed down to about 1850, the Committee found in Mr. John Cox, Jr., a cousin of Mr. George W. Cocks, who has had large experience in examinations of early records, a worthy substitute to verify the transcript and read the proof, and to annotate and index the printed records.

The Committee considers that its duty is to furnish an exact copy of the records, leaving it to the reader to adopt interpretations and constructions of the matter recorded wherever the meaning is doubtful. The time expended in producing such a copy of the ancient volumes, with their many obsolete forms of spelling and writing, has largely increased the expense of the publication; but we feel that the production of a dependable copy is the greatest necessity, and that to publish an incorrect or only approximately correct copy would be to waste the money of the Town.

It is planned to publish the records, when funds are provided, down at least to 1800, in six volumes, of which this first includes, in general down to 1690, although some deeds and proceedings of an earlier date will appear in the next volume, as the old books were not always filled in exact chronological order.

The Musketo Cove record shows the acts of the five proprietors of that Patent in subdividing and selling their land. It is of great importance in the history of titles to real property in the Township, but as the record has never been in the custody of the Town officials, it is here given as an appendix.

The extracts from the records of the Court of Assizes are those originally furnished to this Town as particularly pertaining to it. They explain and illuminate interesting matters in the Town records, as this Court was a body of plenary power, both administrative as well as judicial.

There are also included in the appendix several deeds from the Indians not recorded in the Town records, but of prime importance, and a few unrecorded wills which are also important in the history of land titles. There are also included certain documents of importance in the Town's history, which, though in print, were not before accessible to the average reader.

The record book of Robert Williams' Patent, nearly as important as the Musketo Cove record, will, be available for the appendix in a later volume as also the Book of Marks, referred to in these pages, and which contains interesting data. An index or digest of such very early deeds and wills pertaining to the Town as appear in the County Records of Queens County would also be of great value in connection with the Town records.

The early Town records show to us a small band of pioneers struggling to establish themselves in their new homes and conducting their affairs in the Town Meeting, in which all took part, and the majority controlled. Their problems may seem simple to us, but their administration was excellent, and we who have had so many years of experience since then to guide us, would do well to study the direct way in which our forefathers met their difficulties and answered the questions coming before them.

INTRODUCTION

Seventeenth Century chirography is rendered more difficult by now disused forms of several of the letters, the many signs, abbreviations and contractions used, the very small and frequently crabbed penmanship of many writers, as well as by the use of words and phrases now obsolete. Many of the Oysterbay Immigrants were good penmen, and their spelling and grammar as shown in these records is fairly correct for that period. The second generation in the Colonies usually lacked in some degree, and the third still more, the culture of Old England, and their spelling and writing in these records show it, though not so much here as in some localities. Many words that appear to be badly spelled in these records are simply obsolete forms, as accar, acer, acker, acree, and aker, all ancient forms of the word which once meant the area an ox team could plow in a day. The eighteen foot pole is another example of forgotten custom, and not an attempt to defraud the Indians. The ancient English pole was of various lengths in different localities, 9, 12, 15, 16½, 18, 20, 21 and 24 feet. That of eighteen feet was called "woodland measure."

The most common contraction was the use of y for th, at the beginning of a word, with the remainder of the word raised, as y^e for the, y^t for that, y^m for them, yⁿ for then or than, etc. These letters have not been raised in this copy. Annoq Dom; is Annoque Domini, now reduced to Anno Domini; Instrum^t is clearly instrument, y^{or} is your and Decemb^r or X^{br} is clearly December, but the many cases of such words as Decemb^r where all the letters are used show the subconscious mind of the penman halting between the contraction and the full word. A contraction of various forms, but always meant for the word delivered is best rendered by dd. Another contraction is in such words as wthin, consid^ation, etc., where letters are raised in the middle of a word, usually to save a single vowel. A sign frequently used, and puzzling to the unaccustomed eye, is ¶, used at the beginning of a word for par, per, por, also for pre, pri, pro, etc., as ¶t for part, ¶cel for parcel, ¶form for perform, ¶son or ¶con for person, ¶mises for premises, ¶tence for pretence, ¶¶ for proper, ¶¶ty for property, and in the middle of a word, as ap¶tenance for appurtenance, ap¶bacon for approbation, etc. This sign properly should not be used for pre, pri, or pro, but a slightly different character, yet in John Newman's minute hand this difference is not noticeable. When c was substituted for ti, as in consideracon, a mark was used to indicate the sound. Writers generally did not double m in such words as common, but put a mark over the letter to indicate the omission of the second consonant. No attempt has been made to reproduce the superior marks and specially formed letters, except as here stated, as no increased clarity would result and the text would be confusing to the average reader. The use of capitals presents difficulties, and no two copyists would produce the same result. With some good penmen a large proportion of the words were capitalized, regardless of their importance, but omitting capitals in striking instances, as "god." The capitalization has been followed as closely as may well be done, rendering for the ancient capital F the nearest printable approximation, ff, and rendering capital I as such, though by some penmen written J. Among the letters whose forms have changed, are c, frequently made like a very short lower case t; e, so much like an o as to require much care in deciphering; g, made like a y with a dash across it; k, much like our b; r, especially when raised, so much like the Greek e, as to be very generally mistaken therefor by untrained copyists, and when not raised sometimes so peculiarly formed as to easily be mistaken for rr. U and v are frequently but not regularly interchanged, but in this particular they are here generally rendered as they were intended to sound. In the case of capitals they are rendered as given, as in Vnderhill. By the Eighteenth Century the present forms of the letters had generally prevailed, and fewer contractions were used.

Where the mark used as a signature is an initial of the given or surname of the signer, it is here so given in parenthesis, as John (J) Wright. In all other cases the mark is rendered as an ^{his} X. The seal is always rendered by an _{mark} O. Where the original is worn away the letters or words are restored, in so far as could safely be done, the restored matter being placed in square brackets, thus—"Jo[hn Newm]an." Interpolations of letters, words or sentences are in Italics in acute brackets, thus—"shall <not> molest"—and are put in to explain or elaborate the text. Annotations are similarly printed. It may be remarked that this form of bracket has never before been used, and was specially made for this publication. The result is a copy verbatim et literatim et punctuatim, with the exceptions as to the peculiar marks herein noted. Many apparently clerical errors are faithful reproductions of the original.

The Book of Purposes, containing (with the exception of the First Purchase Deed) the oldest extant records, is largely in the hand of Matthew Bridgman, and the first few pages in an ink as black and distinct as if written two days ago instead of two and a half centuries.

Old Book A is, for the most part, in the large hand of Thomas Townsend, whose ornate capital R distinguishes him. He used few contractions or abbreviations, but made up by using a plethora of commas, without regard to their location or sense, and whose doubling of unnecessary letters is notable. Matthias Harvey's hand appears on some early pages, identified by the Greek e, rarely used at that period. A few documents are recorded in the hand of Thomas Webb, schoolmaster, and sometime Town Clerk, whose remarkable wrist movement produced interesting, if unusual, results.

Book B was, by the internal evidence, begun 1684/5, and its 480 tall pages were filled (except a few pages and parts of pages left blank) by 1698. In this brief period an enormous number of conveyances were recorded. The joint purchase of common land, the subdivision by allotment, the further subdivision of small plots, and the shifting and exchanging to get the land more conveniently arranged, explain this. This Book B is mostly in the excellent penmanship of the Town Recorder, John Newman, who wrote a very small hand, full of the space saving devices inherited from the age of parchments; but an occasional page is in the large hand of John Townsend, who used few contractions, and no punctuation, and though apparently a rapid writer, formed each letter perfectly and to a true alignment at top and bottom.

The map at the back of this volume is a necessary and important addition to clarify and explain the text, and to show the geographical relation of the various settlements to each other and to the adjoining towns. It has been prepared with the aid of George W. Cocks, and shows some of the early geographical names and places, and a few homes of the settlers, approximately correct.

So many errors are made in copying old dates that the following explanation seems useful.

Down to 1752 the Julian Calendar, established by Julius Caesar, remained in use in England. The Gregorian Calendar, by which most of the world now computes time, was introduced by Pope Gregory in 1582, at which time the greater part of continental Europe adopted it. The English Parliament considered it in 1585, but did not adopt it until 1751, when it was ordered that the New Style go into effect the following year, 1752, which was to begin January 1st, and that eleven days should be omitted after the 2d of September 1752, making the following day the 14th. Russia still uses the Julian Calendar, and the difference is now thirteen days. The year formerly began March 25th (The Feast of Our Lady) but had been generally changed to January 1st (The Feast of the Circumcision) long before the English reform. In the Old Style December was the tenth month as its name indicates, January the eleventh, and February the twelfth, and while March was the first month, the first 24 days in it belonged to the previous year.

Therefore for a long period preceding the reform, English dates between January 1st and March 24th inclusive, were commonly expressed in both styles, as 1/Jan. 1695/6, 24/Mar. 1695/6 or in Quaker parlance, 1/11 mo. 1695/6, 24/3 mo. 1695/6. The month is frequently denominated numerically in these earlier records, and by some who had no connection with the Society of Friends. The New Style was enjoined in the Dutch patent of Gravesend, 1645. The difference between Old and New Style is shown by the following table.

Old Style.		New Style.
11th Mo.	January	1st Mo.
12th Mo.	February	2nd Mo.
1st Mo.	March	3rd Mo.
2nd Mo.	April	4th Mo.
3rd Mo.	May	5th Mo.
4th Mo.	June	6th Mo.
5th Mo.	July	7th Mo.
6th Mo.	August	8th Mo.
7th Mo.	September	9th Mo.
8th Mo.	October	10th Mo.
9th Mo.	November	11th Mo.
10th Mo.	December	12th Mo.

One noteworthy fact shown prominently in these records is the amity between the newcomers and the old in this community. The land was purchased from the Indians, who were always referred to as the proprietors, for a valuable consideration, or in some cases given by them "for ye many kindnesses and favours by us ye sd Indians Recd." There is no case where the Indians make a claim of being defrauded or having their land taken by men of this Town without their consent and recompense. The one apparent exception appears in Nicholas Simkins' affidavit (see Appendix) and that shows only their impatience at the delayed delivery of the eel spears and other useful things promised, and then needed, and was doubtless accentuated by the massacre of their people that year at Fort Neck. The prices paid appear reasonable when considered in connection with related matters. "One Kersey Coat each & every yeare of ye aforesd Indian's Naturall Life" might be worth more to the native than a piece of land good only for raising corn. Few parcels, however, were conveyed by individual Indians. The land was generally sold by a few Indian Proprietors by and with the consent of the rest of the Indians, who had deputed them to that service. Life rights in hunting and camping on unimproved portions were frequently stipulated.

The Immigrant population of this Township, together with most of the English on Long Island, differed from the Puritans of New England in degree rather than in kind. They may be considered as a modified wave of the Puritan migration, some being Immigrants who had spent some time in New England, some the children of such Immigrants; few, if any, direct from England, and no Dutch till a later period. Although the Congregational Church did not take root here, Days and Times were not much recognized, and deeds were dated on December 25th. The earliest religious edifice was the Quaker Meeting House, built near Main Street, in Oyster Bay, in 1672. The Town Meeting was a little Parliament, as in New England, at first an absolute democracy, and the majority vote of the freeholders accepted new comers as Townsmen, on their application, sometimes with a proviso to live in the Town for five years, or, for land or privileges granted, to build a mill or bridge in a definite time. The bounty on wolves' heads or ears was frequently provided for, and the necessary "woulfe trap" had very probably been constructed by joint action of the freeholders before the date of our earliest records, and probably consisted of a deep pit covered by light brush, with bait thereon. The oyster industry had not been developed, but the beds of shells, doubtless from the Indian feasts, were found so valuable for lime burning that the exportation of shells out of the Township was rigorously prohibited. Remains of such a shell bed still exist in Glen Cove, near the Landing. In the long struggle of the Colonists for civil and religious liberty, the position of "no taxation without representation" was here taken in 1681, probably the earliest instance in the Colonies. The high character of the citizens of this new community is only partly indicated by the absence from the records of much reference to social disorders or crimes, by the comparatively few cases of difference brought to the attention of the Town Court, and by the general adoption of arbitration to settle such differences.

That the community spirit of the Settlers is not yet extinguished, this present enterprise of the Town, rising above the multifarious activities of the present to consider and perpetuate the fading records of the past, is ample evidence.

BOOK OF PURPOSES

"THE FIRST BOOK USED FOR PURPOSES in the Town of Oysterbay, 1658 to 1663," (so named by Jacob T. Bowne, of Glen Cove, who placed a new cover on the book in 1868) a thin volume with all pages injured, and many entirely or partly worn away.

The inside of previous cover contains a document in a different hand from any other in the book and now so badly worn as to be practically illegible, hence not here included.

As its contents now begin with 1660, there may have been another leaf lost since 1868, and perhaps several previous to that date. Certainly several leaves near the back have been largely worn away since Mr. Cocks made this copy in 1898, and the little volume is in such a state of decay that every touch wears away something.

<End of Book of Purposes>

BOOK A

The Old Book A had become badly worn by 1742, and was then copied into a new Book A, omitting many things not then considered of value, marriages being particularly mentioned among the things "of small moment" not included. The new Book A opens with a preamble giving the history of the transcript. A large portion of the old Book A fortunately still exists, and this copy is made from that Old Book A so far as it could be used, and from the New Book A in those parts where the Old Book A is now deficient. The New Book A was very thoughtfully made almost entirely a page for page copy, which much simplified this use of the two books. As here given the page of the original is clearly shown as "(p. 7 Old A)" or "(p. 7 New A)".

The size of New Book A is 14 1/2 x 9 1/2 inches, with 550 pages. Old Book A is of same size and shape.

New Book A, besides the transcript of Old Book A, contains on pages 1 to 150, inclusive, at the back, reversed, deeds recorded circa 1742-1750. These will be given in their proper place in a later volume.

(p. A, New Book A)—WHEREAS ye Ancient Book of Records Called A: being Very Much Defaced and Torn and Likely In a Little Time to be Extinguished, therefor In Order to perpetuate ye sd Records the free holders of ye Township of Oysterbay: Did (amongst other things) at a General Town Meeting held In the Town house ye sixth day of April 1742 by a Unanimous Vote Depute Samuel Underhill and Samuel Willis to Transcribe ye said Record Into a New Book as may Appear by the said Vote as it stands Entered In ye records of sd Town in Lib: F: folio 43 (In these words) And at ye sd meeting Samuel Underhill and Samuel Willis were Chosen by ye Major Vote of the freeholders to Transcribe ye old Book Called A: Into a new Book Now Know Ye that we ye sd Samuel Underhill and Samuel Willis In pur-

William Osborn and Elias Doughty were citizens of Hempstead, but apparently acted without direct authority from the Town. Thomas Townsend was a prominent Oysterbay citizen, and Josiah Hobart, of Easthampton, was arrested in December for stirring up sedition in Southold.

Governor Andross, being recalled to England, had appointed Captain Anthony Brockholls Commander in Chief during his absence. See Brodhead II., 658, for petition of Council, Aldermen and Justices of Assize, to the Duke, for Assembly, 29 June, 1681.

The next entry in our Records is the reply of the Town to the order of the Court of Assizes, which was presided over by Brockholls, and breathes the spirit of Runnymede and of the Declaration of Independence. The answer is dated 4th of 9^{ber} (November) 1681, and the General Assembly was granted two years later. See p. 267 for first appointment of Representatives.)

(p. 11)— To the Hon^{ed} the Select men or Authority of ye plantation called Littleworth in Oyster-bay on Long Island these pꝑsent

Gentlemen

It hath pleaseth the most high to order by his ꝑꝑvidence that wee are put upon it to trouble you wth these ensuing Lines: our Aged ffather Thomas Hopkins by name who hath been Some time Resident amongst you wee understand it hath pleased god to put a period to his Dayes and as wee are Informed Dyed intested (intestate), but as to ye value of what estate he there Left wee have no knowledge off: wee have fro Richard Curbie received a Letter & a Note of Some ꝑꝑticular things Said to be the ꝑꝑticulars of an Inventory taken of What Estate our ffather left there behind him (as can at pꝑsent be found) but no price is there set to ye ꝑꝑticulars by w^{ch} wee are at a Losse how to value them, neither cometh it under ye Atestation of any public notery: also severall things wee know our ffather carried from hence w^{ch} are not mentioned in yt note of ꝑꝑticulars w^{ch} wee are apt to conceive our ffather disposed not off by putting them away. But in such cases where a man dyeth Intested (so farr as wee doe understand) the Law detirmines ye power of Administration to be in the ordinary and by law ꝑꝑꝑꝑ (proper) to be by ye Ordinary comitted to ye next of ye blood but wee being at a Distance cannot so readylic attend ye businesse there: but as you who are ye Select men or ye outhority of ye place to whom Such matters doth belong are ye Ordinary and Administration to to you belongeth, wee therefore humbly crave yoꝝ favour to take into yoꝝ hands all the estate as may any waies be found belonging to our afore Sd deceased ffather the w^{ch} is wthin yoꝝ Jurisdiction and ye Same to Administer upon and therewth To defray all ffunerall expences & pay all just debts due from our Sd Deceased ffather to any ꝑꝑson: As also to make w^t Inquirey may be after what debts are oweing to our Sd ffather; and if possible may be them to recover which when ye Sd ffunerall charges & ye Sd debts are discharged to keep the remainder of the Sd Estate Still in yo^r hands And then be pleased to tender us a returne of what estate is remaining after ffunerall expences & debts are discharged And Seeing So it is that wee are remote, wee would pray you to Employ & Impowr our Loving friends William Thornecraft & Ephaim Carpenter to Looke after matters for wee doe conclude them to be men knowing as to our Sd ffathers affaires. Gentlemen wee hope you will Excuse our Boldnesse and forme our request in doing of w^{ch} you Shall obliedged them who are Yo^r to be Commanded in any office of Love

HISTORICAL SKETCH

PREPARED BY GEORGE W. COCKS.

The earliest purchase, by Europeans, of land within Queens County is given in Col. Doc. N. Y., XIV., 15, as follows:

Indian Deed for Land on Long Island (Queens Co.)

We, Director and Council of New Netherland etc., testify and declare, that to-day, date underwritten, personally appeared before us Mechowodt, chief Sachem of Marossepinck, Sintsinck (also called Schouts bay) and its dependencies and declared, that voluntarily and advisedly, with the consent of Piscamoc, his cousin, Wattewochkeouw, Kachpoher, Ketachquawars, co-owners of the aforesaid land, for and in consideration of a party of merchandise, which they acknowledge to have received into their hands and power to their full satisfaction and contentment before the passing hereof, they had transferred, ceded, surrendered and conveyed as lawful, true and free possession, as they herewith transfer, cede, surrender and convey to and for the behoof of the Noble Lords Directors of the General Privileged West India Company, Department of Amsterdam all his, the grantor's, patrimonial lands and the jurisdiction thereof, situate upon the Long Island, called in the Indian tongue Suanhackey, reaching in length along the south side of said island from Rechouwhacky <Rockaway> To Sicketeuwhacky <Secotague> and from said Sicketeuwhacky in width to Martin Gerritson's bay and thence in length westwardly along the East river to the kil of the Flats <Little Neck Bay> with all the action, rights and privileges thereunto to him, Mechowot, or to any of his heirs belonging, constituting in his place, stead, real and actual possession of the fore-described land and its dependencies the said Lords or who hereafter may obtain their interest, to enter upon, possess in peace, occupy, cultivate and do and dispose therewith and thereof, as they would do with their own justly and lawfully acquired lands, without they, the grantors, having, reserving or retaining in the least any part of or authority over it, but all to the behoof aforesaid; under the express condition, that he Mechowot, may be allowed, with his people and friends, to remain upon the aforesaid land, plant corn, fish, hunt and make a living there as well as they can, while he himself and his people place themselves under the protection of the said Lords, who will grant to them all possible assistance and favor by their representative in this country. In testimony whereof and of the truth these presents have been signed by the witnesses, called upon to do so, who were present at the sale.

Done at Fort Amsterdam in New Netherland, the 15th of January 1639.

In my presence

Cornelis van Tienhoven, Secr^y.

There is no doubt that Oysterbay West Harbor was called Martin Gerritson's Bay, not only in this document but also in the Dutch protest, 1655, "Marten Gerritsen's bay, by him called Oyster Bay" (see p. 671) and in Governor Stuyvesant's grant in 1659, to Govert Lockermans and others, of Hog Island, "a piece of land situate on Martin Gerritsen's Bay." It is likewise certain that the Hempstead patent, 1644, covers from "a certain Harbour commonly called and known as Hempstead Harbour and westward as far as Martin Gerritsen's Bay," and that the Flushing patent, 1645, "extends eastward as far as Martin Geretsen's Bay, from the head whereof," etc. This last bay is a cove of Little Neck Bay, on the line between Flushing and Hempstead, at the place still called "Old Howe's Landing" from the first English attempt to settle Hempstead, in 1637. Hempstead Town Records generally call it Matthew Garritson's Bay. The clear fact is that the name was applied to the two different bodies of water, although Miss Flint, (Early L. I. p. 128-131) believed otherwise; and that they were named from the erstwhile Councilor of Nieuw Amsterdam.

The next known deed for land in the present Township of Oysterbay (properly written as one word "Oysterbay" for the Township, and as two words "Oyster Bay" for the village or "Town Spot" and the Harbor) was issued in 1639 by the Earl of Stirling. He then claimed title to Long Island under a grant from the King, and sold to Matthew Sunderland, seaman, of Boston in New England, two little necks of land, the one on the east side of Oyster Bay, later called Horse Neck, now Lloyd's Neck, the other on the west side, later called Hog Island, now Centre Island. The Earl's title was later repudiated and Govert Lockermans and Jacobus Becker, holding Hog Island by purchase from the Dutch Governor, sold it to the Town of Oysterbay in 1665. Horse Neck, was bought from the Indians in 1654 by Samuel Mayo and others, and resold to Samuel Andrews, merchant, of Boston, later of Oysterbay, who insists in 1665 that Horse Neck shall be annexed to the Township of Oysterbay. It remained a part thereof until 1886, when it was transferred by Oysterbay to the Town of Huntington. On p. 188, et seq., is shown how its name was changed to Lloyd's Neck.

Captain David Peterson de Vries, in the Journal of his voyages to America (translated by Henry C. Murphy, 1853) relates, p.

124, that on June 4, 1639, he "came to anchor in Oyster Bay, which is a large bay which lies on the north side of the Great Island, which is about thirty miles long. This bay puts up into the island, and is about two miles wide from the mainland. There are fine oysters here, whence our nation has given it the name of Oyster Bay."

The next attempt at an English settlement at Oyster Bay was probably made in the spring of 1640. Thither came Captain Edward Tomlins, a man of some distinction in Lynn, Mass., with his brother, Timothy Tomlyns, and a few others. No consent had been asked, either of the Dutch or of Lord Stirling's deputy, and the latter addressed to Governor Winthrop a vigorous protest against their action. The Dutch, nearer at hand, at once resented the intrusion and harried them from the land. (See Miss Flint's "Early Long Island," 1896, an excellent work on the earliest history.)

The next evidence of a settlement by Europeans in the territory now the Town of Oysterbay appears in a deed by certain of the Aborigines to Robert Williams dated May 20th, 1648, including and conveying a certain tract bounded generally north by the Ridge of Hills about Jericho, east by the woods and west by the point of Trees called Cantiage; for which a patent was issued by Governor Richard Nicolls in 1666. These documents are as follows:

<From Book 1 of Patents, p. 69, in the office of the Secretary of State.>

The next is found in 1650 among the Dutch records as "information relative to taking up of land in New Netherland, in the form of Colonies or private Boweries" (i. e. farms) vide Holland Documents per O'Callaghan. This was performed by Cornelis Van Tienhoven, Secretary of the Province, and the portion pertinent may be summarized as follows: "Oyster Bay, so called from the great abundance of fine and delicate oysters which are found there. This bay is about a short mile across or in width at the mouth; deep and navigable, without either rocks or sands; runs westward, in proportion and divides into two rivers, in which said rivers, lie fine maize lands, formerly cultivated by the Indians, some of which they still work; they could be had for a trifle. This land is situated on such a beautiful bay and rivers, that it could at little cost be converted into good farms fit for the plough; there are here and there also, some fine hay valleys."

"Martin Gerretson's bay or Martinnehouck (now known as the West Harbor) is much deeper and wider than Oyster Bay and runs westward in (at the bridge) and divides into three rivers, two of which are navigable; the smallest stream (now called Corn Creek) runs up in front of the Indian Village called Martinnehouck (Matinecock) where they have their plantations. This tribe is not strong and consists of about thirty families. In or about this bay there were formerly great numbers of Indian Plantations, which now lie waste and vacant. This land is mostly level and of good quality, well adapted for grain and rearing all sorts of cattle; on the river are numerous valleys of sweet and salt meadows: all sorts of river fish are also caught there."

The next effort for a settlement here was the expedition organized in 1653 by Rev. William Leverich who came in the "James" from London to New England in 1633 and preached in Boston and other places, including Sandwich, Cape Cod, where he arranged with Samuel Mayo, owner of the sloop "Desire" of Barnstable, Capt. John Dickinson, to bring his and Peter Wright's goods and chattels to Oyster Bay. The vessel was seized while in the West Harbor by the notorious Thomas Baxter under pretence of authority from Rhode Island while cruising against the Dutch, the vessel being as was alleged within the limits of Dutch territory. On an appeal to the General Court at Hartford by Mayo it was adjudged that Baxter should pay Mr. Leverich £150, but that the sails, ropes, two guns & c & c if returned with the vessel should be accounted as £18 toward that amount.

The purchase by Wright, Mayo and Leverich from the Indians was by a deed still existing, and herein reproduced as a frontispiece. See also p. 334, and p. 354, for copies thereof. This is known as the "First Purchase," or "Oysterbay Old Purchase."

The Dutch authorities objected to this settlement in the following terms, under date of 2 Apr. 1655. Col. Doc. XIV., 314.

"Cornelius Van Tienhoven, as Fiscal of New Netherland, constitutes and empowers, as he hereby does, Claes van Elslant, court messenger in this City of New Amsterdam, to proceed to Mattinekonck (Matinecock) Bay, also called Martin Gerritsen's Bay, where some Englishmen have settled, because the same is west of Oyster Bay (which had been agreed upon by the Commissioners as the line between the Dutch and the English in 1650) and to direct there Mr. Levent (Leverich) and all whom it may concern, to remove; in case of refusal, to protest against them pursuant to the foregoing order and protest. I request all and everybody not to hinder the said messenger in the execution of this duty, but when called upon to assist him, as the case may require.

Done at New Amsterdam in N. N. date as above.

Cornelis van Tienhoven."

Peter Wright with his brothers Nicholas and and Anthony, might well be considered the founders of Oysterbay, as Samuel Mayo probably never came here, and Rev. William Leverich for some reason went soon to Huntington, stayed there awhile, and finally settled at Newtown, L. I. The others, except Robert Williams, had but a temporary stay in Oysterbay. Peter Wright, with two other Quakers, were drowned in Chesapeake Bay before March, 1675, while on a religious visit.

Oak Neck and Pine Island, not having been included in the purchase made from Assiapum in 1653, perhaps not then in his jurisdiction, were bought Nov. 24, 1658, by Daniel Whitehead from Josias and Roger, two Indians, and directly made over to the Town in exchange for certain rights given him. (See p. 254.)

Matinecock: In 1661 Thomas Terry of Block Island and his associates made application to the Town of Hempstead, which at that date was believed to be the owner thereof, for the territory known as Matinecock, described as "One parcel of ground on the north side of the Island, on the Est side of our harbour bounded on the west side by that Bay comonly called Hemsted Harbour, on the South side by Harbour Hill and so by an Est Lyne to run as far as there bounds go, and so down to the north Sea. The said inhabitants of Hempstead do grant their request and freely give leave to the aforesaid planters to settle seven families here and they do bind themselves not to bring any Quakers or such like, to be inhabitants thereof."

About 1664 the Indians brought complaints before Governor Nicolls, that they had not sold Matinecock to Hempstead, so he recommended that the Matinecock men should make the Indians some gift or gratuity in requital, since they said they never received pay for the land. Pursuant to this suggestion, negotiations were concluded by which at Kelenworth upon Matinecock, on June 22, 1677, the Indian Proprietors executed deeds conveying to Robert Williams, William Hudson, William Simson, Henry Ruddock, Christopher Hauxhurst, Matthew Priar and Nathan Birdsall, each a specified tract of upland and an undivided one seventh interest in the adjacent salt meadows, together with a right of commonage of grassing and timber in the unallotted part of the whole tract.

Although not an official record, it is an established fact, that on May 24, 1668, the Indian Sachems Suscaneman and Weragh, Chief-Proprietors of land upon Matinecock conveyed to Joseph Carpenter of Providence Plantation, lands "on both sydes of Musketa Cove." Joseph Carpenter had made application to Governor Nicolls for such grant some weeks before, and the Governor issued the following (Col. Doc. XIV., 606):

"An Order to the Constables & Overseers of Hempstead Concerning Joseph Carpenter.

Whereas Request was long tyme since made vnto me on the behalfe of Joseph Carpenter that he might haue a certaine peice of land on each side of the Ryver at Muskitoe Cove, where he proposes to settle two or three Plantacons & to Erect a Saw Mill and a Fulling Mill w^{ch} may prove very advantagious & be much to the welfare of the Inhabitants in Generall, wthin this Governm^t wth w^{ch} yo^u haue beene made acquainted & themselves haue made some obiecons against it, yet haue giuen me no reasonable satisfaccon therein & haueing iust grounds to suspect that the said land thereabout is not as yett wthin yo^r bounds nor was ever really purchased by yo^u, yo^u hauing made no improvem^t therupon though you p^rtend to haue laid it out into lotts for some of the Inhabitants of yo^r Towne These are therefore to require yo^u that after the Sight hereof wth all convenient speed yo^u cause to be laid out for the use of the said Joseph Carpenter a sufficient quantity of land on each side of the said Cove fitt for the purposes & intents proposed by him & that yo^u make imediate retorne of yo^r p^rceeding herein vnto me w^{ch} if yo^u shall neglect to doe I shall wthout More adoo take care to dispose thereof for the publique good as I shall see cause. Giuen und^r my hand the 6th day of April 1668."

Soon after, Joseph Carpenter admitted as copartners and equal purchasers, Nathaniel Coles, Abiah Carpenter (succeeded by Daniel Coles) Thomas Townsend (succeeded by Nicholas Simkins), and Robert Coles.

Littleworth was included in the original grant to Joseph Carpenter from the Indians, but later they, through lack of territorial knowledge or with unscrupulous disregard of previous bargain, sold to Richard Kirby, Jacob Brookin, George Downing and Robert Godfree a considerable tract in the southwest part thereof, which was confirmed to the purchasers for a consideration by the Musketo Cove men, and the Governor at New Amsterdam, as shown on p. 636.

In consequence of Governor Nicolls' persistent efforts there were Patents issued later, to Robert Williams for East Island, which has been preserved, and for Oysterbay and Musketo Cove, of which copies appear on p. 307 and p. 309, but the original documents have been withdrawn or lost. The Patent of Governor Andros in 1677 was intended to confirm the title to the whole territory as of Oysterbay, and to finally exclude the claim of Hempstead to any part of it. Subsequently the Indian title was extinguished by the purchase (p. 331, et seq.) of all the remaining land and meadow including that on the south side of the Island, except the Beach, which latter came into the Town's possession through a previous Patent and Purchase by the Seaman, Jackson and Jones families.

THE MUSKETO COVE PROPRIETORS' BOOK

This book has never been a part of the Town records, but the real estate dealings therein contained are here given as a necessary and important part of the Town's land records. It is a parchment bound volume, 14½ x 9½ inches, now (1916) as for many years, in the custody of George W. Cocks of Glen Cove, who prepared this copy in 1898. It contains, besides the land records, considerable data of vital records, all of which is here given. The Musketto Cove Patent is also given, ante, p. 309.

(fol. 29)—Muskeeto Cove: December ye tenth: 1692:

The purchasers and ꝑropriet^rs of this place being Nathaniel Coles Robert Coles and Nicholas Simkins being ye Major ꝑt and Sd ꝑropriet^rs have this Day Surveyed & laid out a Neck of Land Lying on ye Rere of their Home Lotts; w^{ch} Neck of Land is Mentioned and Demonstrated in their Booke of Records page 21: & 4th Article, in Maner as ffolloweth wth ye Consent of ye Overseers & Administrat^{rs} of ye Deceased Joseph Carpenter and Daniel Coles ffirst—The whole Neck in Length, Breadth & Quantity wth ye Additions thereunto is from ye Cleft Rock North to Morris his Land, one Hundred thirty Six rod; ffrom thence West to Morris his Corner Tree fifty two Rods, Thence West to ye Sea Two Hundred eighty Rod, Thence South one Hundred thirty Six Rod, Thence south one Hundred & twenty Rod, Thence East one Hundred & Sixty Rod: And it is Divided into Lots as ffolloweth

The ffirst beginneth at ye Cleft Rock aforeSd and So Ranging North to Morris his Line one Hundred thirty Six Rod, and West by ye Highway at ye Rere of our Home Lotts Eighty Rod

Second Lot Lying on ye West Side of ye ffirst being ye same Length & Breadth

Third Lott Lying on ye West Sid of ye Second and of ye Same Length and Breadth

ffourth Lott Lying on ye West Side of ye Third and of ye same Length and ye Breadth thereof Westward home to ye Sea:

ffifth Lott Lying on Sd Neck Joyning to Daniel Coles Home Lott, beginning at ye Highway Leading to ye Milstone Spring at ye Waters Side; Thence by ye Waters Side Southward, one Hundred & Twenty Rod; Thence Eastward to ye Rere of Samuel Tillers Home Lott home to Daniel Coles Home Lott aforeSd, Thence Northwardly to ye Highway aforeSd—

It is to be understood yt ye ffifth Lott hath no addition Allowed to it, but ye four ffirst Lotts hath Addition as ffolloweth; The Addition of ye ffirst Lott is ffifty five Rod in ffront & Rere, Ranging north to the Sea on ye West Side of Morris his Land; The Addition of ye Second Lott is Thirty Rod in ffront and Rere Ranging ye same Course to ye Sea; the Addition of ye third Lott is Sixty Rod in ffront and Rere Ranging ye same Course to ye Sea; The Addition of ye ffourth Lott is all ye Remaind^r of Land between ye Addition of ye Third Lott, and ye Sea, And all these Additions Joynes to ye Lotts in p^{rticular} as they belong, unto in some place or other. Day & yeare, above written the p^{ropriet}^{rs} abovementioned this Day being Mett together and agreed each man or woman to take their Lotts of Land aboveSd as it fell to them by Lott: and so ye Lotts were Drawn as ffolloweth as witnes our hands & Seales Day & Date above written Articles of Covenants & Agreements had made & Concluded on by & between ye $\text{\textcircled{P}}$ priet^{rs} of Muskeeto Cove Viz. Joseph Carpenter, Nathaneel Coles, nicholas Simkins, Daniel Coles, and Robert Coles, Concerning Rectifying Some fformer Orders, and of a ffather Division or Laying out of their Lands December ye 27: 1692: as ffolloweth

Imp^rmis that whereas in ye 21th page & 5th Article of ye Booke of Records for Muskeeto Cove Lands there is Mention made of Nine Lotts but upon a Stricter Survey there is but eight Lotts ffound, the fifth Lott being wanting, it is now Laid out at ye ends of ye first three Lotts, The north Bound^r thereof is ye Highway Leading from Muskeeto Cove to Matenacock, and ye South bound^r is ye Highway Leading from Muskeeto Cove to Oysterbay, and from ye Rere of ye fore Sd Lotts westward to Range as ffar as to make up one Hundred Acres it being Nathaniel Coles his Lott, as is mentioned in Sd Book, And further ye Sd $\text{\textcircled{P}}$ priet^{rs} have all agreed that whareas ye Sd Lotts were formerly Laid out one Hundred Rod Long & in quantity fifty Acres, they have agreed to make them two Hundred rod in Length & in quantity one Hundred Acres, that is to Say ye eight Lotts aforeSd, And whereas ye Highway was ordered to be between ye second & third Lotts it is now to be between ye third & 4th

2^{dly} The Sd $\text{\textcircled{P}}$ priet^{rs} have laid out a piece of their Land Lying between ye ffresh meadow & Littleworth Line to each man a Lott as ffolloweth ; And whereas Joseph Carpenter Did formerly allow William Thornicraft Twenty Acres out of his ffifty Acre Lott The $\text{\textcircled{P}}$ priet^{rs} have agreed in Liew thereof to allow him ye Sd Joseph thirteen Rod in Breadth and to begin at ye South Side of Muskeeto Cove Bounds and Ranging west to Littleworth Line and East to ye ffresh Meadows, And next adjoining to this Is Joseph Carpenters Lott being ye first in numb^r & ranging east & west & being in Breadth fifty Six Rod, The second Lott Twenty Eight pole in breadth being Robert Coles Lott, The third Lott Twenty Eight Rod in Breadth being Nathaniel Coles Lott, The ffourth Lott ffifty Six Rod in Breadth being Nicholas Simkins his Lott ; The ffifth Lott ffifty Six rod in Breadth being Daniel Coles Lott, all these Lotts abutting against Littleworth Line and ye ffresh Meadows as aforeSd, And whereas Robert

Coles & Nathaneill Coles Lotts being ye second & third Lotts abovementioned are but twenty eight Rod in breadth and So of Less quantity than ye other three, The ¶priet^{rs} Do all agree to allow ye Sd Nathaniel & Robert as an Addition to Sd Lotts all ye undivided Land Lying Joyneing to their ffifty Acre Lotts mentioned in ye eighth Article of ye one & twentyth page of their Booke of Records that is to say all ye Land yt Lyeth between ye Highway yt Leadeth to Hempsteed and ye Mill swamp or Run—

3^{dly} Whereas ye Home Lotts of Nathaniel Coles & Nicholas Simkins were at first Laid out Less in quantity then ye other Home Lotts as Doth appear in ye Booke of Records in ye one & twentyth page & second Article, the ¶priet^{rs} Do all agree yt they ye Sd Nathaneil & Nicholas Shall have as an Addition to Sd Home Lotts each of them ten Acres of Land, that is to say Nathaniel Coles to take up his ten Acres on ye North side of Rattlesnake hollow, and Nicholas Simkins to take up his ten Acres on ye South side of Rattle Snake Hollow so called but not to Bar nor stop Cattel from watering nor Highwayes

4^{thly} Whereas in ye one & twentyth page & Sixth Article of ye Booke of Records Daniel Coles hath seventy Acres of Land and Thirty Acres of Land ordered to him: The ¶priet^{rs} now Do ord^r yt he ye Sd Daniel Shall have as much Land els where as will make up Sd Seventy & Thirty Acres to be two Hundred Acres to be taken up between Morris his Land and ye Highway Leading from Muskeeto Cove to Matenacock, But ye true meaning of this is that ye Seventy Acres hath by another Survey been made up sevenschore acres and so he ye Sd Daniel is to take up as much Land at ye place aforesaid as will make up ye Sd Sevenschore & thirty Acres two Hundred In Witnes whereof ye Execu^t & Overseers of Joseph Carpenter and ye Execu^t & Overseers of Daniel Coles wth ye rest of ye ¶priet^{rs} above said have sett their hands & Seales ye Day & yeare above written Signed sealed & Dd:

(fol. 34)—At the request of Cap^t Jacob Valentine Barak Sneathing and John Hawkins I have Surveyed the Land Described in the under written figure Lying the West Side of Morris his pattend and Between it and John weekes his Land and whereas there Being an agreement Some time Last year made Between the parties about Settling the Bounds Between the Lotts and there then Being a Dispute Between them and Justice Woolsey Concerning their Bounds and the agreement had referrence to an Arbitration then depending between Said Ben^j woolsey and Jacob Vallentine Viz before micajah Townsend Solomon Smith and Isaac Smith and the Said Solomon Smith and Isaac Smith the major part of them having Settled the Line as is Described on the East Side of the Easterly Lott So that it Takes out of that Lott about 10 acres three roods 30 rods of Land which was agreed to be Lost in proportion to what Each man had in possession: and according to that proportion I have Run the Land out and Setled the Bounds according as the Lines is figured in this annexed map which was delineated by me Samuel willis April ye 26th 1776 Laid down by a Scale of 20 rods to an inch (The map is spread over both pages of the folio)

(fol. 35)—Be Know to all persons Whome it may Concern that We Jacob Valentine Barak Sneathing and John Hawkins all of Masketicove patent in the Bounds of Oysterbay in queens County & Being possessed of Certain Lotts of Land Lying Between the patent formerly obtained By Co^{ll} Lewis Morris and the Land now of John Weekes: and Whereas we the persons aforesaid not having our partition Lines Setled Between us By reason that a Dispute has Long Subsisted Between the owners of Easterly Lott of Land and the possessors of Morris his patent and as Justice Benjamin Woolsey the present possessor of that part Joyning to the Easterly Lott he the Said Justice woolsey and Cap^t Jacob Vallentine Did Some time Last year refer the matter in Dispute to Arbitration and did agree With Each other that In Case the Arbitrators Should award any Land to the Westward of a Right Line from the mouth of Morris his Brook to a white oak Dead tree reputed to be Co^{ll} morris his South West boulder that in Such Case that the parties above named Should Loose Each their proportional part of the Same in proportion that Each had Land in their possession: And it is appearant that the Arbitrators had awarded a line to run Westward in an Elboe forme so as to Inclose about 10^a 3^r 20^r of Land to the westward of the Said Straight or right Line so that In pursuance to the Said Agrrement we have Settled the Bounds and Lines Between the Lotts and run the Lines according to the Courses and Distances mentioned and discribed in the map on the other Leafe of this Book So that Each of us Beares the Loss in proportion as the Survey and Lines run Between the

Lotts Therefor we do Confirm the partition Lines that are run already according to the Said map and we Do agree Each of us for our Selves respectively and for our heires and assignes that the Lines So run Shall be a Constant and Lasting Bounder Between Each Lott without removall or alterations forEver In witness hereunto we have Set to our hands and fixed our Seals this Twenty Sixth day of April in the Year of our Lord one thousand Seven Hundred and Sixty Six 1766

THE COURT OF ASSIZES

The following extracts relating to this Township from the records of the Court of Assizes, are from the copy formerly in the Town Clerk's possession, but which has been for many years in the possession of the New York Genealogical and Biographical Society. Mr. George W. Cocks procured the loan of the manuscript in 1898 to make this copy. This text is of greater importance since the records of the Court for the early English period were destroyed by the fire in the State Library at Albany, in 1911. The Court of Assizes was established at the beginning of the English regime, and consisted of the Governor, his Council, the High Sheriff of New Yorkshire and the Justices of the Peace of the three Ridings. It existed until 1684. It was the highest tribunal in the Province, with the supreme power of making, altering and abolishing laws, but was in no way representative of the people, its members being wholly dependent on the Governor's will. It met once a year, in the autumn. It was this Court, dominated by the "Commander in Chief" representing the absent Governor, which refused the petition of the Towns in 1681, as shown on p. 245-247, though the Justices of the Court had met three months previous, and adopted a similar petition. See Brodhead, Hist., II., 351, et seq.

At a Gen^l Court of Assizes held in ye City of New Yorke beginning on ye 3^d day of November by his Ma^{ties} authority in ye 21th yeare of ye raigne of o^r Sovereigne Lord Charles ye Second by ye grace of God Great Brittain France & Ireland King Defend^r of ye Faith &c Anno Dni. 1669.

Whereas It hath beene Rep^rsented to this Co^rt that ye tyme appointed for houlding ye Two Co^rts of Sessions each yeare is very Inconvenient to be so neare one anothe^r as June is to March, & so longe from June to March againe, untill w^{ch} tyme if ye sume be above Five pound & under Twenty no person can recover his right at Law The Court doth ord^r that for this yeare ensueing ye Two Sessions for ye North & West Rydings shall be held in Decemb^r & June & none in ye month of March, The second wednesday in December to begin for ye North, & ye Third Wednesday for ye West Ryding, The East Ryding to continue as before, unlesse they shall desire ye like alteration or some Inconvenience shall appear.

By ord^r of ye Governo^r & Co^rt of Assizes.
Matthias Nicolls Sec^r

To ye Justices of ye Peace of ye North Ryding to be published.

Several Ord^{rs} made & Confirmed at ye Gen^l Court of Assizes held in New Yorke beginning on ye 5th & ending ye 8th day of October in ye 22th Yeare of his Ma^{ties} Raigne Annoq Domini 1670.

Ordered

1st Whereas Complaint hath been made that Severall Indians at ye East end of Long Island do truck for & buy horses of Christians for their owne use w^{ch} in tyme may prove very dangerous & p^rjudiciall to his Ma^{ties} Subjects in those ¶ts, It is ordered by this court, That no Indians wthin this Governm^t shall be ¶mitted to buy or Keep any horses & if any have beene formerly bought by or Sould to them, The Officers of each respective Towne & Plantation more ¶ticularly those at ye East end of Long Island are to make Inquiry thereof, & cause such ¶son or ¶sons as have sold any horse Mare or Colt unto ye Indians to take them back againe & give oth^r satisfaction to them Equivalent wth their Contract.

And if any one shall hereafter. p^rsume to break this Ord^r ye Horse Mare or Colt so sold as aforesaid shall be forfeited to ye ¶son that shall first give information, & make proof thereof, & ye Person offending shall pay as a fyne to his Maties ye Summe of Ten pounds over & above his Retorning Satisfaction to ye Indian or Indians to whome he sold them.

2. Whereas It hath beene Rep^rsented to this Court that ye breed of Horses upon Long Island is much fallen to decay by reason of ye great numbers of Small undersized horses that Run in ye woods, It is ordered, That ye Law made in this Corporation touching ye breed of horses upon ye Manhatans Island be Recommended to ye severall Townes upon Long Island & that likewise as soone as Conveniently it can be put in Execution.

3. That ye Fees of Constable & Overseers in Towne Courts be Regulated by ye Lawes in such Cases Established.

4. That ye Prices of Corne to be paid in ye Rates, do remaine for this yeare ensueing, as they have beene ye Two p^rceding yeares, for that a due Estimate cannot be made of what is requisite to be done therein untill ye Old & New High Sherrifs have brought in & Affected their Accounts, ye w^{ch} they are hereby strictly required to do wth out any furth^r or longer delay.

5. Whereas It is appointed in ye Laws Establish't wthin this Government, That all wills & Adm^{cons} upon ye Estates of ye Dec^d haveing been first proved & admitted in ye Court wthin whose Jurisdiction ye Person doth happen to dye, shall be returned into ye Office of Records in ye ffort at New Yorke, & being there Recorded, Certificate thereof to be made It is ordered that ye Lawe in that Case provided be attended & observed as well wthin ye City of New Yorke as oth^r Parts of ye Government, any oth^r Custome to ye Contrary notwithstanding.

6. That ye Law for Recording of Deeds be putt in Execution und^r ye penalty of loosing ye benefit of Priority, if a latter Deed shall be first Recorded.

7. That ye Ord^r Concerning Transportation of Deere Skins made at ye last Court of Assizes, do remaine in force till ye tyme lymitted do expire & no longer.

8. That ye Laws concerning marriage be strictly observed, ye breach whereof ye Officers in each respective Towne are to take notice, & retorne and Account to ye Courts on w^{ch} they depend & if any Person hath already beene or hereaft^r shall be fyned for Contempt or disobedience herein, ye fynes are forthwith to be levyed by ye Sheriffe, who hath hereby sufficient authoritye to do ye Same.

9. Wh(e)reas at ye Gen^l Court of Assizes held in ye yeare 1666, It was ordered, That all Townes or private Persons who held Lands or houses within this Government, by graunt or Patent from ye West India Company or any of ye Dutch Governo^r or upon p^rtences of purchase or Patent from any oth^r Person (o)^r Persons, wheth^r Indians or others should have them removed or Confirmed by ye Governo^r und^r ye Authoritye of his Royall Highnesse wthin a certaine tyme p^rscribed under penaltye in ye Said Law sett forth, In obedience whereunto all Townes on Long Island have had new Patents, Except ye Townes of Southampton Southold & Oysterbay who upon some Nicetyes or p^rtences have hitherto delayed to do ye same, this Court doth order that ye said Three Townes do give in their Reasons to ye Governo^r in some short tyme upon what Account they do refuse or delay to do ye Same Contrary to ye Gen^l Rules & Orders Establish't & in ye meane tyme that all their Deeds of purchase Graunts or Patents not Confirmed as aforesaid be look't upon as Invalid to all Intents & purposes as is in ye book of Law Specyfied.

10. That ye Officers of ye Severall Townes to whome warrants shall be issued forth by ye High Sheriffe to bringe in the valuations of their Estates by a Certaine tyme do duely observe ye Same, und^r ye penalty of a fyne to be imposed upon them by ye next Court of Sessions or Assizes.

11. That ye Military Lists of ye respective Townes wthin ye Government be returned in by ye Military Officers to ye Governo^r once every yeare, ye tyme to be at or before ye 29th of May und^r ye penalty of a Fyne to be Imposed by ye next Court of Sessions or Assizes.

12. That ye Traynings be likewise observed as in ye Law is required, of w^{ch} an Account is to be given to ye Court of Sessions and und^r ye like penaltye.

13. That ye Law for ¶ambulation of ye bounds & Lymitts of ye Townes be dilligently attended und^r ye penaltye in ye said Lawes p^rscribed, of w^{ch} an Account is to be given to ye next Co^{rt} of Sessions.

14. Whereas Divers Complaints have bene made of ye great abuse of bringing dead hoggs & Porke into this City & it being not discernable how long they have bene killed by reason to often been brought frozen & so not Capable of p^rserving by Salt, w^{ch} tends much to ye disreputation of that Comoditye when sent abroad, & of ye Merchants who expose it into warmer Clymates, For ye Reasons aforesaide, it is ordered that henceforth no hogge or Hogges shall be brought dead to this place eother for sale or payment of Debts, Except it shall be in Caske well Salted & Pack't according to ye Law otherwise Smoak't or dried of w^{ch} all ¶ersons are to take notice as they will Answer the Contrary at their ¶ill (<peril>).

15. Whereas ye works & Pallisadoes about ye ffort in this City are very much fallen to decay, & it is found requisite & necessarye for ye safety of ye place & Government Some Repa^rtions shall be made thereupon in ye Spring, It is ordered That A Contribution or levy be risen towards ye effecting thereof in each of ye Rydings upon Long Island, And ye Justices of ye peace at ye next Court of Sessions are to consid^r both of ye proportion & manner of Rateing it, whereon they are to make report to ye Governo^r

16. Whereas Severall of ye Townes upon Long Island have made Complaint by Way of Adresse to this Court, desiring a Regulation thereof, That some ¶sons who have lotts of Land in their Townes, do make Severall divisions thereof & sell ye Same to divers poor inconsiderable ¶sons who though they have but a Small ¶te of a Lott yett Expect to give their votes in Towne Courts equall wth ye best freehold^r there, ye w^{ch} in tyme may prove to ye distruction of ye place, its that (thought) it will come to be Governed by ye worst & least concerned of ye Inhabitants, this Court doth thinke fitt to ord^r That each respective Towne so agrieved as aforesaide do make their Applications to ye Severall Courts of Sessions, to ye w^{ch} they do belong, who are hereby Impowered & authorized to give remedye herein.

By Ord. of ye Governo^r & Court of Assizes.

Orders made at. ye Gen: Court of Asizes held in New Yorke beginning on ye 4th & ending on ye 7th day of October in ye 23th yeare of his Ma^{ties} Reigne Anno Dni 1671.

Whereas diverse Applicacones have been made unto this Court from ye Inhabitants of severall Townes upon Long Island representing ye great Abatem^t that hath happened in ye price of Horses & Mares between ye times yt ye Laws were promulgated at Hempstead when ye first Assessm^t was ordered & their Vallue at this p^rsent time Horses & Mares now yielding not above halfe soe much as they were worth then & yett they are still Rated alike Concerning ye w^{ch} they Crave some redress. The Court haveing taken ye p^rmisses into Consideracon doe Ord^r In regard ye valuacons according to ye Law being already brought in & noe provision made to supply ye Deficiency of ye Sume w^{ch} by consequence will be wanting if an Abatem^t according to ye p^rsent vallue of Horses & Mares should be allowed that ye Rate for Horses & Mares as well as other Matt^{rs} shall for this p^rsent yeare continue as heretofore: but in ye meantime Think fitt that some Proposals be p^rpared against ye severall Courts of Sessions to be held in ye Month of June next how to make ye Rate equivalent if the Petition^{rs} Request shall be granted: & ye Justices of ye peace making Reporte thereof to ye next gen^l Court of Assizes there shall be such Order taken therein as will be thought most requisite tending to ye Good & Welfare of ye Governm^t

2. Whereas severall Peticons have been p^rsent to ye Governo^r as well from this City of New Yorke as many parts of Long Island Requesting that ye Prohibicon for ye Exportacon of Corne might be taken off & that they might have Leave to send & dispose thereof at their pleasure for their best Advantage ye w^{ch} was recomended by his Hono^r to ye Justices of ye severall Courts of Sessions held in June last to Enquire into & give their Judgm^{ts} concerning ye probability of plenty or scarcity of Corne this p^rsent yeare (ye uncertainty whereof was ye primary occasion of ye Prohibition) ye w^{ch} was accordingly done & Reporte thereof made unto ye Governo^r very satisfactory as to ye great hopes & Expectacon of a plentiful Harvest: Yet notwithstanding it being since experimentally found that retayning such Graine wthin ye Governm^t will prove to a Generall good inviteing Strang^{rs} with Shipping in for Bread & Floure & ye price of Wheat noe way abased but ye rather Augmented soe consequently can be noe prejudice to ye Inhabit^s The p^rmisses being seriously debated & maturely taken into Consideracon: The Court doth Ord^r that ye Prohibition for ye Exportacon of Wheat in Grayne as also of Meale as it comes from ye Mill doe Continue untill ye next Gen^l Court of Assizes: And also that noe persons within this Governm^t doe p^rsume to Exporte any Wheat in Grayne or Meale undrest as it comes from ye Mill as aforesaid (without ye Governo^{rs} speciall Lycense under his Hand and Seale for ye same < >) Vnder ye Penalty of Confiscation of such quantity of Wheate or Meale as shall be mett withall soe transporting and noe Mast^r of any Ship Sloop Boate or Vessell shall take in any such Loading under ye penalty of Confiscation of ye said Loading as also of ye said Ship Sloop Boate or Vessell soe Transgressing.

3. Whereas many Complaints have been made That notwithstanding ye publique Ord^{rs} of the Governm^t that all Vessells or Boates loaden wth Goods or Merchandize should make Entry of their Vessells & Loading & pay such Customes as are settled by Authority of his Royall Highness & payable upon Customable Goods the w^{ch} Ord^{rs} are duely practized in this City: but neglected els-were It is Ordered that all Boats Sloopes or Vessells coming into or going out of any of ye Portes upon Long Island as well at ye East end thereof as in any other part doe make Entry of there Vessells or Loading & pay ye Customes due (as ye Ord^{rs} from ye Governo^r doe direct) unto such Officer or Offic^{rs} as from time to time shall be appointed by ye Governo^r or ye Chiefe Offic^{rs} of ye Customes in this place to take cognizance of & receive ye same: And that under ye penalty of forfeiture and Confiscation of such Boate Sloop or Vessell whensoever they can be mett with according to ye lawes & Customes in such Cases provided.

4. Whereas great Complaints have been made as well to ye Governo^r as unto this p^rsent Court of Assizes That many of ye Constables upon Long Island & ye Clarkes of ye severall Court of Sessions Notwithstanding ye Strictness of ye Lawes in such Cases provided as also of severall Orders from ye Governo^r reinforcing ye same nevertheless divers of them have Neglected to make up their severall Acco^{ts} with ye respective High Sherriffs who successively have been in that Employ^t Insoemuch as to this day they are thereby hindred & Disenabled from makeing up & cleareing their Acco^{ts} as the Law doth require w^{ch} proves a very great Dissatisfaction to the Country in Gen^l as well as in particular to those who have according to their Duty performed their Trusts yet lye under ye same Imputation: It is therefore ordered that ye Constables of the severall Townes of ye North and West rideings doe before ye next Court of Sessions to be held in Decemb^r cleare their Acco^{ts} wth ye Sherriffs or at ye said Co^{ts} of Sessions & ye Constables of ye East Rideing doe ye like before ye Court of Sessions to be held in March next under the penalty that (in default thereof) their Estates so distreynd upon for ye same: And in case any of them be dead & have not left wherewithal to give Satisfaction then according to ye Law That ye Townes to w^{ch} they did belong doe make payment in their Stead: And it is likewise Ordered that ye Clarkes of the respective Courts of Sessions doe also Cleare their Accompts wth ye Sherriffs aforesaid by the time p^rfixt or at ye said Co^{ts} under the penalty of loosing their Employments & being distreynd upon for what they shall bee in Arreare.

By Ord^r of ye Governo^r & Co^t of Assizes.
Matthias: Nicolls. Sec^r

It is ordered by the Governo^r that the Courts of Sessions to bee held in ye North & West Ridings this next month of Decemb^r shall bee for the North on the first Wednesday & for the West on the second.

(The following matter is incomplete, a page or more of the original having disappeared. It appears to be an extension in detail of the Duke's Laws, providing, in effect, a Town Law. The date does not appear, but internal evidence seems to indicate 1678.)

[] in one year. The first to begin on the first second & third Wednesdayes in March. The latter on the first second & third Wednesdayes in June beginning in the East Riding as formerly & so to goe on to the North & West ridings. And the Generall Court of Assizes is hereafter to begin upon the last Wednesdaye in Octob^r

To the end there may bee an orderly way of empannelling of Juryes in any of the Co^{rt} of Sessions where the High Sheriffe cannot bee present, It is therefore ordered, that the Clarkes of each Sessions shall bring a List of what Causes are entred for Tryall by Juryes, three dayes at least before the Sessions is to bee held, to any two of the Justices of the Peace of ye same Riding who under both their hands are empowered by warrant with equall Capacity as if the said Warrant were signed by the High Sheriffe (to sumon a sufficient Jury or Juryes) } } to attend the publick service in the said Sessions

That in all Cases to be tryed by Juryes at the Generall Court of Assizes the number of Juro^{rs} shall bee twelve, but at the severall Co^{rts} of Sessions the same number is sufficient as already in the Law is sett forth.

That the number of the Overseers in each Towne shall, before the first Tuesday in Novemb^r next bee reduced to foure And whereas Election hath been already in the Respective townes of foure new Overseers for this present yeare, two of them onely shall continue in their places, & the other two shall bee dismis't, In like manner two of the old Overseers shall bee dismis't, & ye other two shall continue, which choice of those who shall keepe in, or bee discharged of the Employment, shall be determined by the Vote of the Major part of the Inhabitants of each Towne.

That the Constable & foure Overseers shall for the time to come have to all Intents & purposes, the same power & priviledge to act & to doe in all matters relating to their Towne affayres, as heretofore was in the Lawes allowed to the number of Eight, And that in Towne Courts, the Constable & any two of them have power to heare & decide all such matters as come within their Cognizance as formerly the Constable & foure of them might have done.

That at the time prescribed in the lawes for Election of Constables & Overseers the two old Overseers (at present continued) shall be dismiss't, & two new ones are to bee chose in their stead; And that from henceforth ye Election both of Constables & Overseers, in each Towne, shall bee by the vote of the Major part of the Inhabitants.

That in each Towne it bee left to the vote of the Major part of the Inhabitants whether at the Admission of the Overseers into their places, they shall take the Oathes in ye Lawes enjoyed. Always provided That if any person of the Towne or stranger having a Cause or suite depending to bee tryed in that towne Court where the Overseers are not sworne—In such cases that person may have a lawfull objection against their proceedings, Vnlesse the Overseers excepted against, do first take their Oathes, which the Constable hath liberty to administer unto them. (The letter from the Constable, Thomas Townsend, to Commander Brockholls, in March, 1678, and the subsequent action of the Court of Sessions in June, in making the concession for this Town (see p. 681) indicates that the above legislation was at the autumn meeting of the Court of Assizes, 1678.)

That the publicke Rates shall hence forth bee payable at one certaine Time of ye yeare which is to bee at or before the last day of Decemb^r & the Constables having already sufficient authority in the Law to make Distresse for non-paym^t They shall bee lyable to make good the Rates in their Towne if any part shall bee in Arreare, or unpayd after the Time prescribed.

That the arreares of the former yeares Rates shall bee paid into the Constables in Every towne, without further delay in the moneth of December next with the present yeares Rate.

That the payment of the Rates for publick charges shall bee made in Corne, Beeffe or Porke at the price herein mentioned. That is to say Wheate not exceeding five shillings the Bushell, Rye & Pease foure shillings Indyan Corne three shillings, & Oates two shillings & six pence, Beeffe at three pence & Porke foure pence per pound, And no other payment shall bee allowed of.

That whosoever shall omitt or refuse to bring in the Valuacons of their Estates to the Constables as is required, The Constable and Overseers shall put a value thereupon according to their Discrecons, & distreyne for the same accordingly.

That whosoever shall neglect or refuse to obey a special Warrant under the Governo^{rs} hand & seale, hee shall bee lyable to such a ffine at (as) the Court of Sessions or Assizes shall adjudge according to ye merritt of the Default.

That whosoever shall reproach or defame any Person or Persons who have or shall act in any publicke Employment either in Co^{rts} or otherwise, or shall vilify their proceedings who serve the publicke in the Government by Authority under his Royall Highnesse the Duke of Yorke: or whosoever hereafter shall anyways detract or speake against any of the Deputyes signing the Adresse to his Royall Highnesse that (? at) the Generall Meeting at Hempsteed they shall bee presented to the next Co^{rt} of Sessions, & if the Justices shall see cause they shall from thence bee bound over to the Assizes there to answer for the slander upon plaint or Informacon.

Whereas in the Amendments of the Lawes formerly sett forth under the head (Marriage) Its said that all persons are to bee accounted of fitt age to marry, when the Man hath attained to the Age of one and twenty, and the Woman to eighteene yeares, It is to bee understood of such Persons as are under Guardianship & (yt) it is not in any wise to take off the naturall Bonds of Duty, and Obligacon which Children owe to their parents.

That the payment of Jury-men shall bee by abatements in their Rates in the Townes where they inhabitt which upon Certificate of their service from any of the Clarkes of the Co^{rts} of the Assizes or Sessions shall bee allowed them by the Constables.

Whereas divers Complaints have beene made that notwithstanding the penalties in the Law sett forth severall persons doe presume to sell Liquo^{rs} to the Indyans, (whereby oftentimes great disorders are comitted) but what is done by them in that kind is acted so privately that seldome any other prooffe thereof can bee made, then by some of the Indyans themselves; It is therefore ordered, that although the Testimony of Heathen against Christians may not altogether be allowed, yet when it meets wth any other apparent Circumstances, such as may bee sufficient as to convince a Jury, In such Cases the Indyans Testimonies shall bee admitted as good proofs against the Persons accused.

The Co^{rt} having taken notice of the Defect & faylings of both townes & particular Persons in not bringing in their Graunts or Patents to receive a Confirmation of them or not coming to take out new Graunts when they are defective, or where there are none at all according to former Directions in the Law; As also taking into their Serious Consideration That severall Townes & Persons wthin this Governm^t as well English as Dutch, doe hold their lands & houses upon the Condition of being subjects to the states of the United Belgick Provinces, w^{ch} is contrary to the Allegiance due to his Ma^{ty}, They do Order That all Graunts or Patents whatsoever formerly made, shall bee brought into bee Confirmed or renewed by authority of his Royall Highnesse the Duke of Yorke, And all such as have no Patents shall likewise bee supply'de therewth by the first day of Aprill next after ye date hereof, after which time neither Towne or private person whether English or Dutch shall have liberty to plead any such old Graunts, Patents or deeds of purchase in Law, but they shall bee look't upon as invalid to all Intents & purposes.

SOME ANCIENT DOCUMENTS

Not recorded in the Town Records (with the exception of the First Purchase Deed), but of importance to the history of land titles in the Town, and to its political history. Those from original documents, unless otherwise stated, were copied, in 1898, by George W. Cocks.

⟨The following is the actual text of the First Purchase Deed, still preserved in the Town Clerk's office. It is reproduced as a frontispiece to this volume. An ancient copy is pasted into Book B, and it was also recorded in that Book. See p. 334 and p. 354. The original is much faded and considerably worn. In order to make this a perfect copy it was necessary to have the original photographically enlarged. J. C., Jr.⟩

(The Dutch Council Minutes, 27 Jan., 1655, show (Col. Doc., XIV., 311) that they, hearing that the English were planning to take the whole of Long Island from them "nolens volens," decided that) as soon as the waters are free from ice and the land from snow some members of the Council with one of the Magistrates of the City shall go to Long Island and where else it may be necessary to inquire civilly and secretly into the matter, using as a pretext a visit to Oyster Bay in the limits of New Netherland to order the withdrawal from this jurisdiction of the Englishmen, who have settled there during the troubles of last year, and in case of refusal to protest against them in due form.

Copy of a Protest served on Johan Levereth (William Leverich) who hath settled on Marten Gerritsen's bay, by him called Oyster bay.

Cornelis van Tienhoven, in quality of Fiscal of the Province of New Netherland and legal conservator of authority and jurisdiction by commission of the High and Mighty Lords States-General of the United Netherlands and Hon^{ble} the Directors of th Incorporated West India Company, Lords and Patroons of New Netherland, given and granted to the Right Hon^{ble} Petrus Stuyvesant, Director-General, and the Supreme Council of New Netherland.

Being instructed by the aforesaid Director-General and Council to repair to you, William Levereth, here and to notify and make known to you and all whom it doth concern, that you have settled within the limits of New Netherland, on land named Marten Gerrit's bay, purchased from the natives, the right owners and proprietors, and paid for and long possessed by the Netherland nation and by the subjects of New Netherland. Therefore do I, in the name and on the behalf of the said High and Mighty, the Lords States-General, and of the Hon^{ble} Directors of the Incorporated West India Company, warn you, on these aforesaid, our long since purchased, possessed and paid for lands, not to proceed with building, clearing, cattle-feeding or hay-mowing, or whatever appertains to agriculture or farming, but that, within thirty days after the service hereof, you do depart beyond the jurisdiction of New Netherland with your people, servants or slaves, furniture, implements, and every article of property you and your nation brought thither, on pain, if you or any of yours, after the expiration of the time aforesaid, be found to have acted contrary hereunto, of my being compelled, against you and whomsoever it may concern, to proceed as circumstances may require. Meanwhile I protest against all damages, injuries, mischiefs and losses which may arise herefrom, whereof I declare, before God and the world, our innocence. This 2^d April, 1655, in New Amsterdam, New Netherland.

(Signed), Cornelis van Tienhoven.

The Governo^rs Letter to the Constable & Overseers of Oyster Bay.

I received yo^rs of the 18th Instant, signed by & in the Name of the Constable & Overseers of Oyster Bay, in behalfe of the Towne, and shall never bee unwilling to manifest the openness both of my Eares and heart, to y^e meanest man in the world, who can object to mee the least oppression upon him, either in Temporalls or Spiritualls; ffor the last, you cannot desire more Liberty than is contrived for tender Consciencs in the Lawes, for y^e first, you may all know that I have put the country to no charge, for which I might have drawne Presidents from all the Colonyes in New England, and his Ma^{ties} Letters Patents would have warranted the same; However the common charge must be defrayed by a Publicke Rate, and upon a late view of both, I found that y^e charge exceeded the Rate of 200 lbs p Ann, besides that, the ffractions of every Townes Account would have proved more difficult to reconcile, then you could possibly imagine. Therefore well knowing that the Trust committed to mee by his Ma^{ty} is a sufficient Warrant for such necessary alteracons, and well weighing that the charges must be paid by Rates and that all those accounts are to bee cleared in the face of the country, at the Assizes, where every man may see, wherefore hee payes his Rates, I say, Upon full and due consideracon of the necessity and equity thereof, I have Ordered (for the good and benefitt of the whole) That y^e Rate bee made and collected at the value of one penny per pound for this yeare, that y^e Publique Debts may not runne into Arreares, or men (who bestow their time and paines for y^e Publicke) complaine that they must stay two yeares for their Payment.

Gentlemen, You see how ready I am to satisfy your scruples, and therefore, I cannot but expect your compliance to my directions, whose dayly meditacon it is, which way I can best serve the country, and without any other expectacon of benefit from them, then a good name, and no such peevish dispositions, which may render them refractory to his Ma^{ties} Government. I must not forgett to remind those that thinke the 200 lbs. was so fully concluded, as not to bee exceeded, for it was then apparent enough, the Rate was too small for the charge, But it was concluded that in that case, a second Rate should be levyed for y^e defraying thereof. I count my selfe ill rewarded for all y^e charge and Paines I have taken, to finde my diligent inspection into the Publique Affaires, brought into Question by those from whom I expect no Proffitt, And if any man shall dispute my Commission, or the Power I have derived upon y^e as Towne Officer, in putting the Lawes, or my special Warrants in Execution, you may be assured, I will Justify my selfe and actions, and yours also in conformity to them, before God and the world, when y^e most forward and perverse will wth shame acknowledge their erro^r; This is the full Answer to your Paper, from

Topping and M^r Wells; yet if it shall appeare upon further enquiry, that there are foure Necks, according to the former Order, that which lyes next yo^r Towne, will belong to it, Notwithstanding the Patent w^{ch} the Towne of Huntington hath obtain'd; I have by his Hono^{rs} Order Written to the Constable and Overseers of Hunting, to send you a Copy of the Certificate, given by Cap^t Topping and Mr. Wells, to which, if yo^u have any Lawfull objection, upon notice thereof, the Governo^r will Endeavour to regulate the Matter betwixt yo^r Towne; This is all at p^rsent from Conference between Huntington men and the Messepegue Sachem concerning South Neck. No date. Between 1664 and 1667.

The afermation of John Ketcham, Thomas Brush and Thomas powell being sent by the Inhabitants of huntington with an Indian called Chickeno too The south meadowes according to the order of the generall asembly at hempsted. When we came to the south to our meadows wee went ovar too neckes to our naybours who had called massapeege Indians About the number of twentie, whoe oposed us about the space of an ower and would not suffer the Indian too goe and shew us the marked tree, then wee shewed the sachem the writing to which hee had set his hand which was our acquitance and yet hee would not suffer the Indian to goe, when wee see nothing would prevaile, wee tooke our leave of them and said wee should carry backe this anser to them that sent us: but they not willing that wee should, tooke up the matter as wee did apprihend, spake to the Indians whoe after gave leave to the Indian who was Chickemo to goe and shew us the tree, many off massapauge Indians went with us. Thomas Brush went before and not taking notise off the tree went past it then a massapauge Indian called him backe and shewed him the tree before Chickenoe came neare it. when Chickenoe came to the tree hee said that was the tree hee marked, as his master Commanded him. Massapauge sachem said by his Interpreter that hee told muntaulke sachem that hee was grived at his hart that hee had sould that necke upon which then wee was, but muntalket sachem tould him that it was sould and it could not bee hoped and therefore bid him goe and Receve his paye and soe hee said hee did: and alsoe massapauge sachem owned his Land and that hee had Received the goods:

Chickinoe's affirmation concerning the South Necks.

7: Oct. 1665.

The day and yeare above said, wee undersubscribed, being in Huntington where Chickinoe came and Instified (? justified) the matter following in relation to y^e reference or order made at Hymsted Generall meeting, touchinge three necks of meadow wh. Huntington had formerly purchased of Muntaukatt Saichem, and he informs true propriety as also in responson to Oyster Bay inhabitants, who lay a claime to part of the said three Necks, saying thare are fouer necks & one thereof belongs to them, the said Chickinoe now did playnely and cleerly demenstrate before us that the Tree he first marked by his Master Muntakett Sachems order, and hath a second tyme denied according to order, is noe other but that w^{ch} ought justly to be owned by him and so marked as aforesaid, and comprehends only Huntingtons just Purchase of three Necks of Medow and in truth is three necks of medowe & not four according to the present relation of Chickinoe,*

* Nearly, perhaps quite all the beaches and meadow described in this deed are now in the limits of the town of Oyster Bay, the Marsepague Indians occupying territory farther west than Huntington as well as in Huntington. It was along this shore of the Great South Bay in Oysterbay town, where Capt. John Underhill and his soldiers, about the time of the first settlement attacked and massacred nearly the whole Marsepague tribe and destroyed their villages on slight provocation. C. R. S. Capt. Vnderhill

New Yorke April 19th 1667.

The Generall having received yo^r letter & with the inclosed from those at Matinicocke hath given mee Order to write this in answer both to you & to them: That hee is very glad to heare of the friendly & quiet Agreement & Compliance of those Ind- yans for the continuance of those families already settled upon their land, wherefore hee thinkes it very reasonable that the per- sons concerned should joyne together in makinge the Ind- yans some Guift or Gratuity by way of Requittall, since they never rec^d any pay for their Land That if (as they alleadge) they have already paid their Neighbo^{rs} at Hempsteed for the Sd Land Its right the moneys or goods should bee returned backe to the End the Ind- yans may be satisfied.

That as to the buisnesse of Samuell Daytons having of foure Lotts & his exposing them to sale upon his Removall, Its thought fitt hee should have one either to enjoy or otherwise to dispose thereof, but no more the other three may bee reserved for the Encouragement of other families to come & settle upon them

And for the proposall of the Inhabitants of giving a Name to the place, The Governo^r doth approve of what they shall doe therein as well that no person shall bee forced upon them without his Approbation. What the Ind- yans have given to Robert Wil- liams may bee confirmed to him as likewise the severall Lotts to the Inhabitants when the Bounds shall bee layd out & certainly knowne, to prevent future Cavill about it.

This is all I have in charge to deliver to you at present, which you'l please to impart to the Rest, So I conclude being

⟨The following, from Col. Doc. II., 581, is of interest in connection with the struggle for civil and religious liberty maintained by this and other Long Island towns. It was addressed to the Dutch, who regained and held the Colony for several months in 1673. Per ibid, p. 638, a Town Meeting at Oysterbay, between the 1st and 19th of October, 1673, took the oath of allegiance, the adjoining towns refusing, but no evidence of it appears in the Town records.⟩

At a Meeting of the Commanders and Hon^{ble} Council of War, holden in Fort Willem Hendrik, 23^d August A^o 1673. Present—Commander Cornelis Evertsen, Junior, Commander Jacob Benckes, Captain Anthony Colve.

The Delegates from Oysterbay appearing, handed in the following Petition:

Now in as much as wee have answered yo^r Requierings, who were never under yo^r Governm^t, and therefore never had occasion to make any agreement wth yo^r nation, about Rights & priviledges given or allowed, because divers in o^r towne Schruple in takeing of an Oath or training, or to be forced to maintaine a Minister not of their Judgement and therefore we desire Liberty in such Casses Relating to Conciencie & to Civil things as you have Promised; there shall be no Respect to Nations itt is sum satisfaction to us who do Expect you will performe as you have promised, and is manifested by yo^r honn^{rs} to New towne flushing, Jamaica, Hemsted & oisterbay.

The Delegates from Oysterbay delivering the above Petition to the Commanders and adjoined Council of War and the same being taken into consideration, their Petition aforesaid was consented to and allowed. Dated Fort Willem Hendrik, 23 August, 1673.

(What this general sickness was, at so healthful a period of the year, I have not learned.)

(The following interesting light on the First Purchase is from the Townsend Memorial, p. 12, where it is stated that the original was found among the papers of William M. Hewlett. Another affidavit, pertaining to the same subject, will appear in the text of our second volume.)

Oyster Bay, 20th of December, 1683. I, Nicholas Simkins, now an inhabitant of Musketocove, aged fifty-six, or thereabouts, do declare that I, being at the first settlement of Oyster Bay, which was in the year 1653, Peter Wright, William Leverich, and Samuel Mayo, they being the three first purchasers, as by the grand deed from the Indian Sachem, and they being mentioned in the deed as purchasers, condescended to the others, to make a settlement of the said purchase, and for did accept of William Washbourne, and his son John Washbourne, Thomas Armitage, Daniel Whitehead, Robert Williams, and Richard Holbrook, as equal purchasers with them, and forthwith indorsed the same upon the back side of the bill of sale; that being done and agreed upon, they immediately proceeded to the laying out allotments; but first they laid out all the highways in the Town, by joint consent. Secondly, beginning at the Mill River, from, and so eastward to the harbor side, they laid out upward of twenty lots, granting equal privileges to every lot; and next year, Will Smith and old John Titus, with several others, were accepted of as inhabitants, and had their allotments laid out to them, by Peter Wright, by the consent of the purchasers. But so it happened, that the purchase-money being not paid, the Indians began to be very unruly and dissatisfied; whereupon the purchasers with the rest of the inhabitants then settled, desired William Smith and John Titus to prepay for the goods, to pay the Indians, which they did, to Mr. Briant, of Milford, and paid it in beef, and I killed the cattle and paid the debt; and when we came to levy the rate for the purchase, it came to eighteen shillings and ten pence. And, to my knowledge, Samuel Mayo was at two Town Meetings, at the first settlement of the place, and was always forward in joining and granting of allotments to each one that was free to settle amongst them, as far forth as any of the rest of the purchasers, or people settled; and this I can give upon oath, and much more, if thereunto called or required, as witness my hand. Richard Holbrook was the first man, as a purchaser, that got up his house, in Oyster Bay. To which I subscribe my hand.

Nicholas Simkins.

The Patent to Nathaniel Sylvester, Thomas Hart and Latimer Sampson for Horse Neck neare Oysterbay.

Richard Nicolls &c. Whereas there is a certain Parcel or tract of Land in the North Riding of Yorkshire upon Long Island, Lying and being in a Neck on the north side thereof stretching out in the Sound or East River comonly called and known by the name of Horse Neck, bounded to the West with Oysterbay to the east with Cowe Harbour, towards the North with the sound and towards the south with a Beach extending to the head of a certain creek which parteth or divideth the bounds of the town of Huntington and the said neck which said parcell or tract of land hath been heretofore purchased of the Indian proprietors and due satisfaction given for the same and whereas John Richbell late of Oysterbay in the foresaid North Riding, Merchant, did make good proofs of his title to the said Hors Neck at the generall meeting held att Hempsted in the beginning of the Month of March 1664 against John Conkling on the behalf of his wife and some orphans who lay claim thereunto and also at the general Court of Assizes held in this City in the month of September 1665 against the inhabitants of the Town of Huntington and hath since sold and conveyed the said premises together with a neck of meadow called the fort Neck lying upon the South side of Long Island and belonging to the Town of Oysterbay unto Nathaniel Sylvester of shelter Island, Thomas Hart of the Island of Barbados and Latimer Sampson of Oysterbay on Long Island aforesaid Merchant. Now for a further confirmation unto the said Nathanel Sylvester Thomas Hart and Latimore Sampson in their possession and enjoyment of the premises Know ^{ye} that by virtue of the commission and authority unto us given by his Royal Highness thee Duke of York I have ratified confirmed and granted and by these presents do ratify confirme and grant unto the said Nathanill Sylvester, Thomas Hart and Latimer Sampson, their heirs and assigns all the afore recited parcell or tract of land called Horse Neck aforesaid together with all woods beaches marshes, meadows, pastures, creeks waters, lakes, fishing, hawking, hunting and fowling and all other profits comodities and imoluments to the said parcell or tract of land belonging and next or appertaining with their and every of their appertnances and of every part and parcell thereof and in regard of the distance of the plantations settled or to be settled upon the said Neck from any Town the persons inhabiting or that inhabit thereon shall be excused from ordinary attendance at trainings and other such ordinary duties in the Town but in matters ef assessment public rates and the like they are to be taxed by the officers of Oysterbay to which Town they are adjudged to belong and they are likewise to give due obedience to all such warents as shall be sent from any Justice of the Peace or executions granted by any of the Courts of judication which shall be served by the sheriff or his deputies. To Have and to Hold the said parcell or tract or Neck of land with the Neck of Meadow afore mentioned and premises with all and singular the privilege and appertenances to the said Nathanill Sylvester, Thomas Hart and Latimer Sampson, their heirs and assignes to the proper use and behoofe of the said Nathanill Sylvester, Thomas Hart and Latimer Sampson their heirs and assignes forever as free Land of inheritance. Rendering and paying as a quit Rent for the same the Value of four bushell of wheate yearly upon the 29 day of September, if Demanded unto his Royal Highness the Duke of York and his heirs or such Governor and governours as shall from time to time be appointed and sett over them. Given under my hand & seal at Fort James in New York on Manhatans Island the 20 day of Nov. in the 19 year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord Charles the second &c. Annoy Dom in 1667.

Exam'in by J. Spragge, Lieut.

⟨The reference in this Patent, on p. 694, to "his wife and some orphans" is evidence additional to what I have already found, that John Richbell had no children, the three daughters of his wife being by a previous husband, named presumably Redmond or Redman.⟩

⟨The following, from Col. Doc. XIV., 435, is the Dutch patent for Hog Island. See p. 297 where these grantees sell it to the Town.⟩

Patent for Land on Long Island.

Petrus Stuyvesant, Director-General, etc., and the Council testify and declare, that to-day date underwritten, we have given and granted to Govert Loockermans, Cornelis van Ruyven and Jacobus Backer a piece of land, situate on Marten Gerritsen's Bay, in the Indian tongue called Matinneconq alias Hogs Neck or Hogs Island, being a small island at high tide, with the dependencies thereof, as the said Loockermans bought it from the natives in the year 1650: with the express condition and stipulation, etc.

Done at Fort Amsterdam in New Netherland, the 23d of April 1659.

⟨The legislation as to geese, p. 268, is explained by the following from the Huntington Town Records, where the Constable and Overseers, 23 Feb. 1681/2 declared geese "very prejeditiall to ye Towne; Becaus ye sheep as hath been observed do not keep in ye streets as formerly, but Run into ye woods whereby they are ye more exposed to be devowered by wolves; because they cannot abide to feed where ye geese doe keep; which is in ye cheife places both for watter and common pasture in our Towne. And also meny people of this towne doe take of ye watter of ye brook for their familie use." It was made lawfull for any one to kill them, and the order was confirmed by the Court of Sessions. Hempstead Town Meeting, 5 May, 1682, passed a similar order.)

(The explanation promised, on p. 303, of the remarkable power of attorney given to his wife, by Samuel Andrews, one of the wealthiest men of the community, is that he and Isaac Horner were about to remove to Springfield, New Jersey, and he probably hoped for a sale of his land here during a preliminary stay there. The first volume of Quaker records shows the following)

The 13th of ye 8th m^o 85:

At this mans meeting of friends have made choyce of Matt. prier & Henery Wilis to see yt a deed of assignment from Samuuell And(rews) & Is: Horner be maid and assined unto John Vnderhill & John ffeake & Rich: Wilits be fore they goe from hence

(The letter from Capt. John Underhill to Governor Nicolls, referred to on p. 678, brought forth, first the following reply, (Col. Doc. XIV. 595), and, a month later, that on p. 678. See also p. 674 and 677.)

Cap^t Undehill.

I have received some writings from the Indians of Matinicock, wherein I find that they are not disposed to sell their lands to the Towne of Hempstead, but say they will with all civility respect the seven families already settled there: I understand likewise that they have given you that part of their land which was spoken of before mee, when M^r Hicks & M^r Gildersleeve and those Indyans were here; I shall bee ready to confirme ye same, upon condicon that the said Indyans doe give assurance that those seven families shall quietly and peaceably enjoy what they have, untill the said Indyans can bee induced for their owne conveniency to admitt of a greater number of families. I have written to this purpose to those of Hempstead. In answer to yo^r letter wherein you desire to bee discharged of yo^r military employment, by reason of yo^r yeares, & other cares that attend you: I do allow of your excuse, and leave you to your owne Liberty being
